LABOUR DAY WEEK-END MASS SCHEDULE: On September 6th, Labour Day, the Basilica will hold two Masses preceded by confessions. The first Mass is at 7:00 a.m. and then at 8:00 a.m. On Labour Day, the Holy Hour with the Divine Mercy Chaplet and Rosary will be held at 8:30 a.m. (There will be no 12:15 p.m. or 4:30 p.m. Masses.) The Basilica will then be closed at 10:00 a.m. for the remainder of the day. This will include the Giftshop.

2010 MISSIONS APPEAL: Next week-end, Fr. Andrew Obel will preach at all Masses on the needs of the people of his Archdiocese of Tororo, Uganda. Fr. Andrew is currently a student at St. Paul University and residing here at Saint Patrick's Basilica. The church's work in his Archdiocese is both spiritual and material. Your generosity will contribute to the medical, educational and social needs of the people, one of the greatest needs being clean drinking water. Your free-will contributions will also support the annual sponsorship of those in priestly formation. A special collection envelope will be taken up during all Masses.

CHOIRS OF SAINT PATRICK'S BASILICA – are welcoming new members for the upcoming year. The Adoremus Choir (SATB), 12:15 Sunday Mass. The Basilica Choir (Unison), 11:00 a.m. Sunday Mass. Youth & Children's Choirs 9:30 a.m. Sunday mass. Come and see if you'll like us; we promise that we'll like you!
